Gila County Sheriff's Office

LATERAL DEPUTY SHERIFF RECRUITMENT

Payson, Arizona
Globe, Arizona

GILA COUNTY

Gila County is a diverse geographical region of 4,748 square miles with approximately 52,000 residents.

There are several communities within Gila County with the largest being Globe and Payson. The Gila County Sheriff's Office has offices in both of these cities and towns with substations in Young and Roosevelt.

Gila County's terrain ranges from high mountains to low desert, all of which can be reached by vehicle within a matter of a few hours.

Gila County attracts many people for its wide range of recreational activities, including: fishing, boating, trail riding, hiking, skiing, hunting, biking, rock climbing, and many more. You can also visit several historical sites such as the Tonto Natural Bridge, Tonto National Monument, Beshba-Gawaah Museum, Zane Grey Museum, and many more.

Gila County is the home to the Tonto National Forest, Roosevelt Lake, the Mogollon Rim and several other lakes and recreational areas..

Within Gila County are three major Indian Reservations, the San Carlos Apache Reservation, the White Mountain Apache Reservation, and the Tonto Apache Reservation, all with their own Casino's, Hotels and other recreational activities.

Gila County is a growing community that is fast becoming a favorite residential community as it is centrally located in Arizona and is the gateway to many other well known locations in Arizona.
