RESOLUTION NO. 13-03-02

A RESOLUTION OF THE GILA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS APPROVING THE DESIGNATION OF THE PORTIONS OF THE SAN CARLOS APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION WITHIN GILA COUNTY
AS A "COLONIA."

WHEREAS, a "Colonia" community as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture does exist on the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation within Gila County, Arizona; and

WHEREAS, incorporated and unincorporated communities within the County that lack adequate water and/or waste water disposal and decent, safe and sanitary housing are eligible for designation as a Colonia; and

WHEREAS, the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation was previously designated as a Colonia and is seeking to retain that designation; and

WHEREAS, designation as a Colonia is necessary to obtain certain state and federal funds to improve infrastructure and housing within the San Carlos Reservation community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Gila County Board of Supervisors approves the designation of the Gila County portions of the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation as a Colonia because it lacks adequate potable water, adequate waste water disposal and/ or decent, safe and sanitary housing.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 19th day of March 2013, at Globe, Gila County, Arizona
