

Public Notice

The Gila/Pinal Local Workforce Area comprised of both Gila and Pinal Counties plans and coordinates workforce services for both counties. To better align both counties with local workforce areas to address economic and workforce planning and services, both counties have agreed in principle to dissolve the current relationship. Gila County is considering joining the Navajo & Apache Counties Workforce Investment Area and Pinal County is considering joining the Maricopa County Workforce Investment Area. The dissolution and realignment is scheduled to be effective on July 1, 2015.

Gila County and Pinal County are considering any and all input from the public at two (2) public hearings scheduled for:
