

Gila County Superior Court Commissioner J. Dee Flake

J. Dee Flake

COURT COMMISSIONER

A court commissioner is a person appointed by a judge to assist him/her in finding facts, hearing testimony from witnesses and resolving issues. Court commissioners are frequently lawyers or retired judges. In many states, court commissioners commonly hear testimony concerning the validity of wills, preside over default divorces and other default hearings, decide alimony and child support modifications, and decide discovery motions.