

GILA COUNTY LOCAL EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP AND COMPOSITION

By federal and state law, each LEPC must include, at a minimum, representatives from each of the following groups or organizations:

Group I: Elected state and local officials	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • John D. Marcanti, District II Supervisor, Gila County Board of Supervisors
Group II: Law enforcement, civil defense, emergency management, fire fighting, first aid, health, local environmental, hospital and transportation personnel.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Michael O’Driscoll, Director, Gila County Health & Emergency Services • Debra Williams, Gila County Emergency Management • A.J. Howell, Tri-City Fire Department • Nick Renon, Globe Fire Department
Group III: Broadcast and print media These entities are needed to get the word out about a release or for providing a channel for public education about LEPCs and their goals.
Group IV: Community groups Community groups, especially environmental activists and advocates, can raise issues and be very effective in representing the public concerns about chemical risks and hazards.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carmen C. Corso, Retired Emergency Manager
Group V: Owners and operators of facilities subject to the requirements of EPCRA §313. The purpose of the diversity of stakeholders is to get a full handle on the complex job assigned to an LEPC, and each point of view and expertise lends more substance to the planning effort. Each area of interest and expertise represented on the LEPC membership adds to the depth of the LEPC effort.
